Serial Nos. One

Part B for Apl 50

SUBJECT

Representation of certain Personal Assistants to the Ministers for the sanction of an enhanced duty-Allowance.

No. 3757
Date 24/2/49

Submitted.-

Joint representation presented by

1) T.R. M.Lakshminarayana Setty, Personal Assistant to the Minister for City Municipalities and Muzrai;

2).G.S.Rajasekharan, Personal Assistant to the Minister for Revenue & P.W.,

3) C.Rachaiah, Personal Assistant to the Minister for Local Self-Government.

1) We are all Amildars working as Personal Assistants as detailed above. The Duty Allowance attached to these appointments is only Rs.35/- per mensem. But we understand that some Amildars working in other capacities as Secretaries to the Hospitals; Secretary, Land Mortgage Bank, Bangalore; Personal Assistant to the General Manager, Road Traffic Service; Manager, Regional Employment Exchange Office, have been allowed a Duty Allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem as well as home orderlies.

1) 20.1.49. How Minister for L.S.G w/c and How Minister for City Municipalities & Muzrai w/c.

2) It is learnt that very recently the Manager of the Revenue Commissioner's Office is also given a Duty Allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem.

HS 27/1.

3) The work of the Personal Assistants of the Hon'ble Ministers is by no means less arduous than that of the officers referred to above.

4) In these circumstances, we respectfully request that our Duty Allowance be raised from Rs.35/- to Rs.50/- per mensem.

2) I think it is reasonable that these Amildars (P.As) get the same allowance as other Amildars who are on other duties, are getting. The question of providing them with Orderlies is a basic necessity & very reasonable especially in a place like Bangalore. This will be in accordance with their status as Amildars.

5) In this connection we also beg to request that the appointment of a Home Orderly to each one of us may kindly be sanctioned as the services of a Home Orderly is very necessary in a City like Bangalore.

4 The request for the grant of the allowance of Rs.50/- p.m. is based on analogies. What has been allowed in one case cannot reasonably be denied in exactly similar case. Recently the Council has resolved to enhance the allowance of Rs.30/- p.m. that was being paid to Sri T.V.Seshagiri Rao, Manager of the Revenue Commissioner's Office, to Rs.50/- p.m. The case of these three Personal Assistants is on all fours with that case. Hence the allowance of Rs.35/- p.m. may be enhanced to Rs.50/- p.m. from the date of their promotion as Amildars in the case of the first two and from the date of assumption of charge as Personal Assistant in the case of serial No.3.

5 The request for a Home orderly may be negatived.

I think the moment they become Amildars they ought to be posted to places suited to their station with the allowances etc that go with the new offices. They cannot have both ways - do the same work - get a higher status - higher pay and then claim a higher allowance. There ought be a common policy - some of the PAs being Amildars & some others something less than that naturally breeds complexes - 9/8

The points for consideration and a decision in Council are:--

1. To treat all the P.As. to Ministers as Amildars on tenure basis, as opined by the Hon'ble Minister for
2. ~~This will~~ Finance & Industries.

2. If this is done, then there will be no disparity amongst the P.As. whose work is the same. More-over, this arrangement will not curtail the privilege of the Minister in selecting his P.A. in whom he has got confidence.
